1 LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY / SIGHTSEEING TOUR

We depart Knoxville this morning with an early afternoon arrival at the Galt House, located in the heart of downtown Louisville along the Ohio River, for two nights. We will be welcomed to the Galt House by a Christmas Character and shown to our rooms. In the evening we will enjoy a delicious holiday dinner in the Ballroom and their holiday production, "Christmas Past and Present". D

2 LOUISVILLE SIGHTSEEING TOUR/ DERBY DINNER PLAYHOUSE

A local guide will show us the sights in Louisville—the gateway to America's first westward expansion with a sophisticated revitalized river front. Best known as home to the Kentucky Derby, the most exciting two minutes in sports, Louisville sits on a plain adjacent to the falls of the Ohio River. The city is also known for producing more than one half of the world's supply of bourbon. Louisville's Main Street collection of 19th-century cast iron facades is second only to those in New York city's Soho District. Time for shopping in the afternoon. This evening enjoy a delightful dinner and holiday show at the Derby Dinner Playhouse. D

3 BELLE OF LOUISVILLE LUNCHEON ON THE OHIO RIVER

Today, before departing Louisville we will enjoy a delightful holiday luncheon dockside on board the Belle of Louisville—the oldest and most authentic of the grand beauties that grace our nation's waters. The Belle was purchased in 1962 by Jefferson County, Kentucky and is now a National Historic Landmark and a vital part of Louisville's identity. We will depart immediately after the luncheon and show for home. L

1 BILTMORE BY CANDLELIGHT

We depart Knoxville this morning traveling to Asheville stopping for lunch and shopping at Biltmore Village before checking into our hotel to freshen up before our evening of planned activities. Dinner is included at Deerpark Restaurant before our evening Candlelight Tour. Firelight and candlelight fill the house with a warm glow. Get into the holiday spirit with choirs singing European carols, vintage ballroom dancers, and dramatic Christmas readings. The Front Lawn of Biltmore House sets the scene with a sparkling holiday illumination of evergreens bathed in thousands of twinkling lights. D

2 LUNCHEON AT GROVE PARK INN / HOMEWARD

This morning after a leisurely morning at our hotel, we visit the beautiful Grove Park Inn for a delightful holiday buffet with all the trimmings in their Blue Ridge Dining Room. Live holiday music, festive decorations, the National Gingerbread House Competition display and a historic ambiance (think roaring fires and carols) combine to make a wonderful family Christmas. The Grove Park Inn, once billed as the "finest resort hotel in the world", was built in 1913 out of native boulders and set in the scenic splendor of the Blue Ridge Mountains. After time for shopping and browsing at the Inn we depart Asheville for home. L
